City of Raytown Appoints New City Administrator, Finance Director and Public Works Director
A New Era of Leadership

Raytown, MO – Tuesday evening the Raytown Board of Aldermen made the following staff appointments at their regular scheduled meeting:

Tom Cole: City Administrator

Tom has been engaged with the City since 2009 as Economic Development Administrator and has previously served a variety of roles in City Hall including Interim City Administrator, Interim Finance Director and Public Information Officer.

Briana Burrichter: Finance Director

Briana's history with the City and the Finance Department began in 2010 as Senior Accounting Analyst and became Assistant Finance Director in May of 2015.

Kati Horner-Gonzalez: Public Works Director

Kati joined the City in August 2015 as Assistant Public Works Director and was appointed to the role of Interim Director in April 2016.

The appointments come as the result of Finance Director and Interim City Administrator Mark Loughry announcing his resignation to pursue a position in Leavenworth County last month.
