City of Raytown to Host Community Budget Forums

Held annually to help citizens understand City's budget process

(RAYTOWN, Mo.) –The City of Raytown will hold two community budget forums in August. The first one will be held on Thursday, Aug. 5 at Raytown Schools Wellness Center, 10301 E State Route 350. Then on the following Tuesday, on Aug. 10 the second forum will be held at Raytown Christian Church, 6108 Blue Ridge Blvd. Both forums start at 6:30 p.m. These forums will include a brief presentation of the budget process followed by Q&A.

The City's fiscal year runs from Nov. 1 – Oct. 31. The 2021-22 budget will go before the Board of Alderman in October for approval.

To maintain transparency, these forums are held annually as a refresher for residents of how the budget is prepared along with an overview of funds. The forums will be recorded and can be viewed online at raytown.mo.us.
