"We are pleased to receive this report from the Missouri State Auditor's Office, as it highlights the high quality of functions and compliance that Judge Traci Fann and our Raytown Municipal Court staff maintain in the operation of the court," said City Administrator, Damon Hodges. The City Administrator further stated, "the audit of the Raytown Municipal Court is a separate audit that was started when the Missouri State Auditor's Office began their audit of the City of Raytown. We continue our work at City Hall in a transparent manner as the Missouri State Auditors continue to review the City's functions and compliance as scheduled."
