Caffeine Hunters Will Have Another Option in Raytown

Dutch Bros Coffee breaks ground on Raytown drive-thru this week

(RAYTOWN, Mo.) – Earlier this week, construction commenced for a Dutch Bros Coffee location between Freddy’s Frozen Custard & Steakhburgers and IHOP on Highway 350 in Raytown. Dutch Bros Coffee is a drive-thru coffee company dedicated to making a massive difference one cup at a time. Headquartered in Grants Pass, Oregon, where it was founded in 1992, it’s now sharing the “Dutch Luv” with more than 700 locations in 14 states.

“We’re so excited to be part of the Raytown community,” said Katie Henell, operator of Dutch Bros Raytown. “We can’t wait to meet all of our new neighbors later this year!”

The $400,000 drive-thru facility located at 10025 E. 350 Highway will include two-lane drive thrus and a walk-up window. The new 950 square foot facility will be constructed by BEAR Construction Services LLC of Overland Park, Kansas. This location is expected to open this fall.

“I am delighted to welcome another great business to the City of Raytown, Missouri,” said Raytown Mayor Mike McDonough. “I wish many years of success for Dutch Bros Coffee here in our city. We’re glad to have you here.”
